Bramblestar X Squirrelflight

Many dislike/hate this ship, and yeah, I do dislike it. Though, It was good while it lasted. I wont dive into the BrambleSquirrel abyss.

I rate this ship a 2/10, as it was good before everyone started hating it.

Rootspring x Bristlefrost

Many don't like this ship either, but I love it.

10/10

Leafpool x Crowfeather

This ship is cool. Too bad Crowfeather left Leafpool and took Nightcloud as a mate and had a son to prove his loyalty. I honestly think medicine cats should have kits, as long there is another medicine cat or a experienced cat that knows what to use for healing. Otherwise this ship is cool.
